Date: Saturday 25 October 2014

Venue: Hilton Dartford Bridge, Masthead Close, Crossways Business Park, Dartford DA2 6QF

Event outline:

• Introduction to headache
• Benign headache cases - management focused
• Sinister cases - diagnosis/ avoiding pitfalls

Speaker: Andrew Dowson MB BS, MRCGP
Andrew Dowson qualified in medicine in 1984, and worked as a GP for several years before becoming a specialist in headache. In 1996 he founded the NHS King’s Headache Service at King’s College Hospital, London and delivers a secondary care service at Princess Royal University Hospital Bromley. He is the Clinical Lead for the community based East Kent Headache Service. He is lecturer at Edinburgh University and in particular clinical lead for the MSc in headache. He has served as an investigator in many clinical studies of headache, on epidemiology, medications and devices. He is the immediate past chairman of the umbrella organisation for the headache interested charities - Headache UK and Chairman of MIPCA (Migraine in Primary Care Advisors), the leading UK charity that promotes headache management in primary care. In recent years he has chaired the P-CNS (Primary Care Neurology Society). He is a former Council member of BASH (British Association for the Study of Headache). He has authored numerous original articles, reviews, books and congress presentations in the field.
