SPEAKERS

Inger Roug FRCC is a third generation chiropractor and graduated from Palmer College of Chiropractic in 1989. She subsequently earned her diplomate in radiology from Logan College of Chiropractic, Missouri. Dr Roug has lectured at Life University, Logan College of Chiropractic, Western States Chiropractic University and is currently a chiropractic radiologist at AECCUC since 2015. Dr Roug has authored several peer-reviewed research and case report articles in the chiropractic and biomedical literature. In addition to classroom teaching, Inger worked from 2003—2015 for two MR Imaging centres in the Atlanta, Georgia, where her main case loads were MRI and CT imaging of the spine and extremities.

Meriel Davis FRCC (Sport) graduated from the AECC in 2007 and has over 12 years experience treating athletes of all ages. Her favourite sport to work in is athletes where she has had the opportunity to work alongside other Sports Chiropractors, Physios, Sports Doctors and Osteopaths. She works at international level sporting events including Masters Athletics, World Sports Games and Tug of War as well as elite events including the IAAF World Athletics Championships and the Para-Athletics Championships. Meriel holds an ICCSP qualification and is a Fellow of the RCC Sports Faculty. She is continually updating her professional toolbox to ensure the athlete, whatever age, is ready to go!

John Williamson FRCC (Sport)

John graduated from the WIOC in 2005 and is a Fellow of the RCC Sports Faculty. Having always been an athlete representing Wales in track and field at school-boy level, and playing rugby to elite standard, John quickly took an interest in sports chiropractic. John has worked in many different sports nationally and internationally, notably working at many World and European masters athletic championships, Britain's and Europe's strongest man competitions and pitch-side work with national league rugby and football.
