

Chiropractor wanted for busy Chiropractic Clinic in Beckenham, SE London.

You will be joining a committed team working in an innovative patient-centred practice, established for over 35 years. We are a very busy Clinic, highly regarded in our area and most of our associates stay long term. We believe in supporting each other as a team. Mentorship is available if required and we have a registered PRT trainer for newer graduates. Great rates of pay and no external marketing required. The clinic is located within walking distance to multiple train stations, and has great public transport links to central London.

If you think this is for you, please email chris@sevenoakschiropractic.com or leave a message at the Clinic reception on 01732 742120.
